Gifted to William Murray by King Charles I in 1626, Ham House was transformed by William and his wife Catherine, and later their daughter and heir Elizabeth. Surviving the English Civil Wars and Parliamentary rule, and home to Elizabeth and her descendants for almost three centuries, the house you see today is a rare survivor of one of the great Stuart houses.

GETTING THERE: We will be going to Ham House by coach which will leave St Peters Hall Limpsfield at 9.45 and arrive at Ham House about 11.15 (subject to traffic). We will leave about 3.00pm arriving at St Peter's about 4.15pm. Refreshments are available in the Orangery Café.
